

SERVICES:

DESIGN + BUILD + EDIT + STYLE + SHOP

THE CLOS-ETTE METHOD

CONSULTATION

During our initial consultation, we conduct an interview to determine what services you need, while gathering additional information about your lifestyle, such as shopping and dressing habits. We analyze the space and determine a scope of work to begin an estimate.

CLOSET EDIT

Here we examine your closet, inventory your wardrobe and accessories, and then begin working through what stays and goes to help you revamp your style. Taking away the clutter and leaving only relevant pieces is not only therapeutic, but is a necessity for any closet and wardrobe makeover. Merchandising the clothes, similar to a store or showroom, is the best way to achieve a complete wardrobe clarification. Categorizing clothes by color, or into separates, evening, day, accessories and so on is a great way for you to really start to “see” the contents of your wardrobe.

DESIGN PROCESS

During the final design stage, decisions are made about the space’s layout and aesthetic. Our team of architects and designers devise a plan based on your personal inventory, taste, and lifestyle. The scope of work can be a complete build out or a simple organization installation.

RESULTS

Clos-ette’s goal is to build a closet space that organizes and merchandises the wardrobe so it is wearable and cared for while also beautifully displayed. Once your clothes are installed in your beautiful new closet, you’ll feel like you have a whole new wardrobe. Only then can you go ahead and shop your closet!

HOLISTIC ORGANIZATIONAL DESIGN™

The same planning and organization that go into a well-designed closet are equally important for other specialized spaces like kitchens, wine cellars, personal offices, and media storage areas. They all must be designed from the inside out. This concept is what we refer to as Holistic Organizational Design™—the idea that the inventory dictates the design, not the other way around.

Our use of this approach yields unmistakable results: spaces that are not just beautiful, but organized, streamlined, and designed in perfect tandem with the items they are intended to store.

SHOP YOUR CLOSET

Clos-ette can shop for your personal style, or help you develop a style that better fits your lifestyle, work schedule and social engagements. After an evaluation consultation, we discover the scope of the project and your specific needs, and then discuss further shopping and budget. Showroom appointments and custom designer appointments are just some of the perks to this service. Shopping can either be done together in stores or from the convenience of home or a hotel. This is luxury living at its best, and a time-efficient way to maintain a very seasonal wardrobe.

DEVELOPER & RETAILER PARTNERSHIPS

Clos-ette has been very successful bridging the gap between our private clients and new developments in various markets. Luxe residential and high-end hotel concepts are enamored of our Clos-ette signature organizational products, and our developing line of cabinetry. We have worked with several developers to establish a presence in their projects as the exclusive closet designer, helping to add value. Many developers agree that Clos-ette has been a great asset in helping develop their marketing strategies.

Showroom and retail space design is another one of our specialties. Creating better use of space while also attracting editors, buyers and customers is the goal for most of our commercial clientele. Whatever your design needs, our team can meet them.

TESTIMONIALS

"Clos-ette designed a beautiful and functional space for our closet in West Chelsea. Their finished product blended seamlessly with the building's high design and concept."

- Philip Tabor, Jean Nouvel Chelsea for Luxury Attache

"Melanie did a phenomenal job! She is very professional, fun to work with and above all extremely creative in the way she uses space!"

- Francisco Alfaro, Miura Global

"Clos-ette helped us organize our separate spaces while also providing complete continuity with our design. Anyone who spends money on their wardrobe I urge to consider using Clos-ette to build out and organize their closets. They really did wonders for us!"

- Wendy (ex-Fashion Director at Vogue) and Michael Clurman

"Melanie and her staff were absolutely wonderful to work with. I went from having piles of clothes & boxes stacked high in my loft to having a meticulously organized Clos-ette closet that is one of the most beautiful and well-made things in my apartment. I don't know how I found anything before I found Clos-ette. Highly recommended"

- Alexander Roy, Author, "The Driver"

"Working with Clos-ette was a wonderful experience. They are incredibly reliable, did beautiful work and made my home an organized sanctuary. I would recommend them to anyone who loves the idea of gorgeous closets with taste and style."
