

Star

BREAKING NEWS!

Oct. 2009

March 1

HOT Sheet

E-MAIL US YOUR HOT IDEAS AT STARHOTSHEET@STARMAGAZINE.COM

BUSTED

Hot SWEETS

If Food Network star Rachael Ray counts on Ruby et Violette for delicious desserts, it must be doing something right! The NYC-based bakery and café takes your average cookie to another level, with more than 120 flavors of handmade treats—including seasonal options. What's on the menu for spring? Oatmeal butterscotch and peppermint chip, just to name a couple. The company ships beautiful gift boxes nationwide. $29 for a box of 10, rubyetviolette.com

Hot GAME

Maria Menounos reaches a new dimension of gaming with the Nintendo 3DS. The handheld portable device features 3-D graphics without the need for glasses! There are also motion and gyro sensors to complete the experience. $250, available for preorder at target.com

FEB. 22

ney & Jen DOBS, FACE

Christin
Booze &
RO
BO

The pair that dro drink an 40 pou

BEYONCÉ

Hot DÉCOR

Start your art collection with ArtWeLove. The online boutique offers limited-edition museum-quality prints by leading contemporary artists—all at affordable prices. This unique Kate Moss portrait by French painter Servane Mary is a steal at only $50! Starting at artwelove.com

Hot CLOSET

Celebs are fortunate enough to hire professionals to organize their closets full of designer duds. According to reps, Beyoncé called on wardrobe wizard Melanie Fascitelli for help with hers. Lucky for us, Melanie created Clos-ette, a site devoted to providing tips and tools to conquer clutter. clos-ette.com

arlett
Sean
Mexican tryst

Hot FRAGRANCE

A pair of Jimmy Choo shoes may break the bank, but the high-end footwear brand's new eponymous perfume is an affordable luxury. Jessica Szohr clutches the tiger orchid, toffee and Indonesian patchouli blend—a mix as sexy and seductive as a pair of Choo stilettos. $70, Saks Fifth Avenue stores

MARCH 21, 2011

Video